FEBCUARY 17th, 1959

IN

THE NEW HIG SCHOOL, RICHBY

1. Translate into good English:-

Erant puellae quaedam, quae in litore habitabant et carmina tam pulchra canebant ut nautas incautos naves in rupes gubernare cogere. Ulysses autem haud nescius tantum periculum adesse carmen earum nihilominus audire volebat. Comitibus igitur imperavit ut, auribus cera completis, prope illum locum navem dirigerent, seque ipsum ad malum vincirent, ne vocis illarum amore compulsus in summum periculum ire vellet. Hoc fecerunt, neque ei paruerunt oranti ut vinculis solveretur: itaque ille solus hominum carminibus puellarum auditis incolumis effugit.

2. Translate into Latin:-

When the Romans had for many hours vainly tried to break the line of the barbarians, their leader adopted a plan which seemed to offer a last hope of safety. He ordered a centurion to retire with fifty soldiers and set fire to the baggage, in order to frighten the enemy. The barbarians, seeing the flames, and fearing that they would lose the whole of the booty, began to be less eager for battle, and their ranks, abandoning the line of battle, rushed to extinguish the flames.

RUGBY SCHOOL SPEECH DAY

June 21st, 1958

---

PROGRAMME OF SPEECHES

I. PRIZE-GIVING.

II. THE HEADMASTER.

III THE CHAIRMAN OF THE GOVERNING BODY.

THE FLOREAT.

(revised version)

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

THE FLOREAT.

(Traditionally sung by past and present members of the School standing, while the rest of the audience remain seated).

Evœ! laeta requies
Advenit laborum ;
Fessa vult inducias
Dura gens librorum.
Antiquis ergo moribus
Nos nōn indigni adsumus,
Nam nobis est corona
Triplex, priorum dona ;
Ludendo, studendo,
Laborans et orans
Floreat Rugbeia !

Illa vivat, operum
Strenua navatrix,
Et virtutum omnium .
Unica creatrix ;
Illa regno cives bonos
Et bonorum det patronos :—
Det clāros senatōres,
Laureātos bellatōres ;
Et donis, coronis,
Laudata, beata,
Floreat Rugbeia !

At si fatum omnes nos
Tanta vult conari
Hæcce saltem tempora
Fas sit otiari.
Nondum cancellarii
Sumus aut episcopi ;
Sic, fratres, gaudeamus,
In loco desipiamus
Et choro sonoro
Citemus, clamemus
Floreat Rugbeia !
